

Evidence of Shared Life — Interview Practice Questions

Focus on truthful, real documentation. Don't guess, verify with statements/photos/emails if needed.

1) Big-picture: what shared evidence exists (truthful only)

- What types of shared-life evidence do you currently have (lease, bills, bank/credit, insurance, photos, travel, messages)?
- Which items are in both names vs only one name?
- What time period does your evidence cover (months/years)?
- Is there anything you expected to have but don't (and why)?

2) Housing proof (lease, letters, landlord records)

- Do you have a lease/mortgage showing you live together? Whose names are on it?
- Do you have renewal letters, rent receipts, or a landlord/management letter?
- Do you have mail addressed to each of you at the same address (bank letters, medical bills, DMV, IRS)?
- Where are these documents stored (email, folder, cloud)?

3) Joint bills and utilities

- Which bills are in both names (electric, gas, internet, phone)?
- If bills are in one name: do you have proof the other contributes (transfers, reimbursements)?
- Do you have billing history showing consistent payments over time?
- Where do you access bill statements (online portal, email PDFs)?

4) Banking, credit, and shared expenses

- Do you have a joint checking/savings account? Which bank and since when (approx)?
- Do you have joint credit cards or authorized user status (if applicable)?
- If separate accounts: how do you pay each other back (Zelle/Venmo/bank transfer) and do you have a pattern?
- Do you have statements showing shared expenses (rent, groceries, travel, childcare)?
- Where are bank statements stored and how far back can you retrieve them?

5) Insurance and beneficiaries (only what you truly have)

- Do you share health insurance (spouse on plan) or separate plans?
- Do you have auto insurance listing both spouses (drivers/insureds)?
- Do you have renters/home insurance in one or both names?
- Life insurance: is anyone listed as beneficiary? Where is the policy info kept?
- Do you have any workplace benefits paperwork listing spouse (emergency contact/beneficiary)?

6) Photos together over time (not just one day)

- Do you have photos together across different times (holidays, trips, family gatherings, everyday life)?
- Are photos dated/organized (phone album, iCloud/Google Photos) and can you show they span time?
- Do you have photos with each other's family or friends (weddings, birthdays, holidays)?
- Where are photos stored and who has access to them?

7) Messages and call patterns (normal relationship communication)

- Which apps do you normally use to communicate (text, WhatsApp, FaceTime, Messenger)?
- Do you have call logs/messages that show normal daily check-ins over time?
- Do you have shared planning messages (rent reminders, grocery lists, appointments, travel plans)?
- Do you keep screenshots, or would you rely on the app history if asked?

8) Travel proof and shared experiences

- Do you have travel receipts/confirmations (hotel, flights, rental car) with both names or linked emails?
- Do you have photos from trips showing dates/locations?
- Do you have shared event tickets (concerts, weddings, family events)?
- Where are confirmations stored (email, apps, printed copies)?

9) Gifts, cards, invitations, and household proof

- Do you have birthday/anniversary cards or letters between you? Where are they kept?
- Do you have wedding invitations, receipts, or vendor communications (if applicable)?
- Do you have shared memberships/subscriptions (Costco, Netflix) and whose name is on them?
- Do you have joint purchases (furniture/appliances) with receipts or delivery confirmations?

10) Children/parenting proof (if applicable)

- Do school/daycare forms list both spouses (contacts, pickup permissions)?

- Do medical forms list spouse as emergency contact or guardian (if applicable)?
- Do you have custody/parenting schedules or co-parenting communications (if relevant)?

11) Organizing your evidence (so you don't get flustered)

- Is everything organized in one folder (physical binder) or digitally (cloud folder)?
- Can you quickly find: lease, 2–3 bills, bank statements, insurance cards, photos, travel confirmations?
- Do you have duplicates/backups (email + printed copies)?
- Who is responsible for organizing/keeping documents at home?

12) "Reality check" questions (recent and specific)

- What is the most recent shared bill payment you can point to (and where is the proof)?
- What is the most recent shared event you attended (photo or receipt)?
- Can you find a photo from 6–12 months ago together (where is it stored)?
- What is one shared expense from the past month and how was it paid?

Important: Only use real records. Never create or alter documents. If something doesn't exist, it's okay to say so and explain truthfully.
